

What others are saying about HBLU™:

"I've been using Judith's techniques in the emergency department and in war zones around the world for over 15 years and find them invaluable for the treatment of the physically and emotionally traumatized patient. Judith is a true pioneer in the field of holistic psychotherapy."

David Irvine, MD

"Of the many workshops I have attended, none has compared with Judith Swack's for sheer intellectual excitement, psychotherapeutic innovativeness, and practical effectiveness. This workshop opens up new and important territory."

Nathaniel Branden, Ph.D., psychologist
Author of The Six Pillars of Self-Esteem

"I have trained in many different therapeutic modalities and HBLU™ pulls together everything I know and works when no other modality does. Eighty percent of the work I do with patients is HBLU™."

Sierra Levy, N.D.

"The best cure for burn-out I've ever seen! This workshop has given me the tools to increase my own resourcefulness as well as the resourcefulness of others."

Ruth Monahan, Educator

"I enthusiastically recommend this to all therapists who wish to be at the leading edge in helping their clients heal rapidly and lastingly."

George Pratt, Chairman
Psychology-Scripps Memorial Hospital
Author of Instant Emotional Healing

"Six weeks after taking the HBLU™ I training, my client load and income doubled without any different marketing effort on my part. I now have a waiting list of people who would like to work with me. Instead of having a handful of 'breakthrough', miracle sessions each year, I have that many each day."

Amy St. Hilaire, LMFT

"Judith was absolutely correct: patients who do not hold their adjustments almost invariably have a trauma frozen in their bodies. Once I release that body imprint, patients respond beautifully."

Richard Herbold, Chiropractor

What is Healing from the Body Level Up (HBLU™)?

HBLU™ is a holistic psychotherapy system that addresses somatic, psychological and spiritual aspects of an issue simultaneously. Developed by biomedical research scientist, Judith A. Swack, Ph.D., HBLU™ integrates the best of biomedical science, psychology, spirituality, applied kinesiology, Neuro Linguistic Programming, and Energy Psychology with her original research on the structure of complex damage patterns.

HBLU™ begins with the philosophy that a person's soul is embodied for two reasons: to manifest their soul mission and to enjoy life. If a person is not on track with their soul mission, or if they feel uncomfortable/not getting the desired results in some area of their life, then there must be some type of interference pattern that is causing a misalignment at some level of their being.

The purpose of HBLU™ is to provide healing practitioners with a way to:

- 1) identify the source of these interference patterns by easily accessing information from the client's deepest wisdom/soul, unconscious mind and body and
- 2) choose and apply an effective technique to heal that pattern thus aligning the conscious mind, unconscious mind, body and soul...

This combination of mind/body healing protocols consistently produces powerful, lasting results. And most critical, our methods are:

- Specific and reproducible
- Fast (less than 30 min. each) with lasting results
- Easily performed on yourself and others.

The ease, enjoyment, speed and efficacy of HBLU™ will help you better enjoy your patients and your work. HBLU™ takes the guess work out of therapy, reduces burnout in practitioners and helps them rediscover the joy of healing.

About the Instructor: Judith Swack, Ph.D., developer of HBLU™, is a biomedical scientist, teacher and healer. During the past 25 years, she has synthesized biomedical research with research from other non-medical systems. The results: an innovative and powerful methodology that consistently produces transformative results. Judith has published in professional journals and presented her work at conferences and on national television.

In this exciting and fun-filled experiential workshop, you will acquire protocols, skills and interventions to:

- Access information from the client's deepest wisdom by mastering muscle testing
- Easily identify priority treatment goals to maximize efficiency and efficacy
- Clear/resolve negative emotions, limiting beliefs, and internal conflicts
- Completely clear all aspects of loss and violence trauma
- Establish and maintain healthy boundaries at all levels in a variety of situations and contexts
